Re: Delinquent Times Square MSBU Maintenance Accounts

As you may recall from our January 7, 2002 meeting, the Council had extended the grace period for discounted payment of delinquent Times Square MSBU maintenance accounts to January 31, 2002. If the accounts were not made current by January 31, 2002, a lien in the full amount owed would be implemented. Several merchants responded with payments and our maintenance accounts went from $ 20,092.73 delinquent to $ 2,844.12 delinquent in the course of 5 weeks. However, the following merchants remain delinquent in payment and are to be placed on the lien resolution created by the Town Attorney.
