The Town of Fort Myers Beach Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) is included in the Town's reporting entity because of the significance of the operations and financial relationship with the Town. The component unit has the same governing body as the Town, and is accounted for in a special revenue fund. The CRA was established by the Lee Town Board of Town Commissioners pursuant to Resolution 90-07-21. The Town Council for the Town of Fort Myers Beach became the governing board of the CRA pursuant to the Town's Resolutions 98-13. The name was changed to the Downtown Redevelopment Agency (DRA) in 1999. The current budget reflects the outstanding assessments. Once collected by the Town, the proceeds will transfer to other funds.
