Volunteers needed for Town boards and committees

Town of Fort Myers Beach, FL – Community members interested in serving as volunteers to advise and support the work of Town government are encouraged to apply for current openings on four of the Town's 10 advisory boards and committees.

The Town's boards and committees exist to advise Town Council about Bay Oaks Recreational Campus, the Mooring Field, Mound House, Newton Beach Park, finances, island preservation and history, marine resources, nuisance abatement, and public safety.

Available openings:

- Audit Committee – advises about financial matters and particularly on the selection of an auditor to conduct the Town's annual financial audit;
- Cultural and Environmental Learning Center Advisory Board (CELCAB) – oversees Mound House and Newton Beach Park;
- Historic Preservation Advisory Committee (HPAC) – assists the Local Planning Agency and the Historic Preservation Advisory Board with historic preservation matters;
- Local Planning Agency (LPA) – ensures preservation of the unique, natural characteristics of Estero Island and serves as the Historic Preservation Advisory Board.

More information and the application can be found at www.fmbgov.com. From the homepage, navigate to: About FMB > Advisory Boards and Committees > Advisory Boards and Committees Application.

Contact the Town Clerk's Office at 239-765-0202 with questions.
