With kids back in school and offseason traffic light, now is the perfect time to visit the iconic Mound House on Fort Myers Beach! One of Southwest Florida's most-beloved historic attractions, the Mound House traces its roots back to the ancient Calusa of over 2,000 years ago. The Mound House, the oldest standing structure on Estero Island, is open Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. It practices Social Distancing guidelines and encourages all unvaccinated guests to wear masks.

The Mound House offers exciting new programs the next two Fridays. To celebrate Friday the 13th, it hosts the "Spooky Kayak Tour" at 9 a.m. What better way to observe this bewitching day than hearing folklore legends about pirates, mermaids, and other tall tales while experiencing the natural beauty of the mangrove estuary, but leave those broken mirrors and black cats at home! $45-per-person, with Mound House members at $15; advance registration necessary at 239-765-0865 or www.moundhouse.org. The Mound House provides all paddling equipment, so come out if you dare!

On Friday, August 20, the Mound House hosts a brand-new "Build & Brew!" This fun Summer evening includes pottery-making along with a local craft beer and tasting. Each "Build & Brew" ticket includes Mound House admission, a tasting and one full craft beer, and a one-hour class on making Native American pottery out of modeling clay, similar to the styles discovered at the Mound House. The interpretive staff will Social Distance guests and the Mound House encourages all unvaccinated visitors to wear masks, with a limit of 15 people. "Build & Brew" tickets are $40-per-person, with Mound House members $30; advance registration necessary at 239-765-0865.

The Mound House presents the "Untold Stories Guided Tour" on three separate occasions that focuses on the crazy cast of characters who called the site home, as well as offering three different kayak programs this week and the Mound House's signature event, the "Shell Mound Outside Guided Tour," five times.

The Town of Fort Myers Beach operates the Mound House as a museum complex and cultural and environmental learning center that provides numerous educational programs each month, including for children. It is at 451 Connecticut Street with overflow parking at 216 Connecticut. Admission is $10 for ages 13 & up, $8 for students with IDs, $5 ages 6 to 12, and 5 & under free, with Town residents receiving a 50% discount.
