

Proclamation

Whereas, the safe use of hazardous material is essential to business, industry and local governments to maintain economic stability, and to protect the citizens of the Ninth Planning District of Florida; and

Whereas, it is essential to plan and prepare for the accidental release of hazardous materials and to protect the well-being of all citizens and visitors in the District; and

Whereas, response teams, such as fire, police, and emergency medical services must know the types of hazardous materials and chemicals that are being used and stored in the event of an incident to respond safely; and

Whereas, all citizens have a right-to-know about the types of hazardous substances in their communities and the procedures to take in the case of a chemical emergency.

NOW, BE IT THEREFORE KNOWN, that the Town Council of the Town of Fort Myers Beach recognizes the importance of community awareness of the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act" enacted by the United States Congress, and hereby proclaims the week of February 3-7, 2014, as in the Town of Fort Myers Beach, and urges all our citizens to observe this week with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities.

Hazardous Materials Awareness Week

Given under my hand and the seal of the office of the Mayor this 3rd day of February, 2014.
